Gradle Enterprise for Gradle

Between Gradle Inc. and AppDynamics LLC

June 11, 2021

Product Description

Gradle Enterprise

Gradle Enterprise enables organizations to improve developer productivity and increase operational efficiencies of manufacturing software. Gradle Enterprise also reduces the idle time for developers by monitoring and measuring every aspect of your build infrastructure, enabling you to continuously improve the speed and quality of service of builds. Developers and build masters are empowered to determine the cause of failures quicker than ever before. The advanced build cache feature dramatically reduces the wait times for local and CI builds, giving back time and focus to software engineers to do more important tasks.

Gradle Inc. offers the Gradle Enterprise software as a customer on-premises deployment. The licensed software will be delivered electronically.

Fees and Payments

Gradle is licensing a term-based License of Gradle Enterprise subject to the Gradle Software License Agreement effective June 29, 2018 by and between AppDynamics LLC and Gradle, Inc..
